

DR. ROCCO BUTTIGLIONE

RESUME

Education

He studied law in the Universities of Turin and Rome, focusing on history of political doctrines, under the tutorage of prominent Professor Augusto Del Noce.

Academic Institutions

Professor of Political Philosophy at the University of Teramo, the Lateran University and the Internationale Akademie für Philosophie (where he served as Acting Rector).

Organizations

Member of the Pontifical Academy of Social Sciences.

Political Career

Throughout his political career he has occupied prominent positions in the Italian government (Minister for EU policies and Minister for Cultural Assets and Activities). He has been a member of the European Parliament and the Italian Parliament, where he currently seats as a member of its House of Representatives.

Works

Works include "Dialectica e nostalgia", "Metafisica della conoscenza e politica in S. Tommaso d'Aquino", "Augusto Del Noce: Biografia di un pensiero", "Karol Wojtyla: The Thought of the Man Who Became Pope John Paul II", "L'uomo e la famiglia", among others.